2008 FSU Bobcats Summer Baseball Camps

CAMPERS: The FSU Summer Instructional Camp will be both instructional and informative for all levels of players who wish to improve their skills. Along with improving your baseball skills, campers will have the opportunity to work with and learn from college coaches. The camps will further the players skill level to enhance their ability to play the game and have fun.

Camp Director: Head Coach Guy Robertson

Coach Robertson enters his first season with the Bobcats in 2008. Robertson brings with him a great deal of experience coaching the game of baseball including a solid background within the state of Maryland.

He comes to Frostburg after serving as the Director of Recruiting for the Baseball Factory in Columbia, Md. since July 2006. While there, he helped place kids with colleges and universities all across the country.

Robertson served as the head coach at NCAA Division I Coppin State from 2002 through 2006. He is the all-time leader in winning percentage, second all-time in both CSU wins (64) and MEAC wins (30). He also holds the school record for victories in a single-season (21). In 2005, he was selected as the MEAC Coach of the Year after posting a 10-7 league record.

He has coached camps for the University of Maryland, William and Mary, Naval Academy, Robert Clemente Baseball Camp and has helped with the Baseball Weekly Instructional Series
